We Take A Few Bows

Love the new arrangement for the directory in the Summer 1963 Issue. Makes it so usable!

HARRIET ROGERS KOHLMAYER
Indiana State Chairman
Lafayette, Ind.

Congratulations on your Spring Issue, 1963. It was splendid!

ANNE MEEK LOGAN
Beta Beta, Randolph-Macon

My husband finds many of the articles of great interest, too.

BETTY JEAN DAVENPORT VARN
Alpha Mu, Missouri

Your new format is very well done.

VIVIAN KELLAM RICHARDSON
Alpha Lambda, Washington-Seattle
Los Angeles, Calif.

◆ We have gradually been adopting a more modern format for the Theta Magazine, introducing a different heading type (Elizabeth) this past year, and with this Autumn 1963 Issue also present a new two-color cover. We hope you like it!—EDITOR.

Remembrance of Things Past

For several years I have intended to commend Theta for presenting an excellent magazine. One particular article in a past issue, "The American Heritage," (Autumn 1960), was especially interesting.

We feel that patriotic writings of this sort are all too often forgotten in many national magazines. It is our hope that the magazine will continue to remind all Thetas that we have a great deal to lose should we ever depart from the principles set forth in our Constitution.

MARILYN DRAKE McBRIDE

Bartlesville, Okla.

Like a Diamond in the Sky . . .

Theta has always been a real part of my life and I have such pride in all Theta does.

I was born the same year as Theta.

I was initiated at Indiana in 1886.

I was delegate to the 1891 Convention in Burlington, Vt., and took a copy of the first songbook. I had worked so hard on it, even copying some of the music as well as the words.

I still remember so many of the "old girls" (as they called themselves) when they came back to visit. At the 50th anniversary luncheon given by the Indianapolis Alumnae Chapter I presided—and heard one of Theta's founders tell of the first initiation.

Two of my sisters were Thetas before me—Mattie Rawles Batterton and Ella Rawles Springer—and my daughter, Mary Wheeler Wells, and granddaughter, Mary Ann Wells, followed me.

But I am letting my pen run away with so many reminiscences. I only meant to answer your inquiry in the Summer 1963 Issue about 75-year Thetas. I do so enjoy the magazine and its fine quality.

GRACE RAWLES WHEELER
Beta, Indiana
Indianapolis, Ind.

◆ Grace Wheeler actually boasts 77 years in Theta.—EDITOR.

Under Big Ben

I would appreciate your putting a note in your next issue of the Theta Magazine asking all Thetas living in Britain to contact me. Surely we Thetas in Great Britain can form an alumnae club and contribute to the betterment of Anglo-American relations. We might also work out a plan to meet Thetas traveling in Britain who would like to see (to quote my British husband) "the way the natives live."

Fifth Dimension?

We are speeding along at about 80 m.p.h. en route to California from Lubbock, Texas, so please excuse scribble. I sat up until midnight attempting to get our alumnae letter whipped into shape. Banging away last night on a borrowed typewriter in the deserted coffee shop of the Ramada Inn in Springerville (with my husband John, 3½-year-old daughter Kay, and 11-year-old son Jim all peacefully and sensibly asleep) I laughed at my propensity to be forever involved in some Theta work.

In March I was getting out the pre-convention letters until 4 a.m. the night before leaving on a train for Wichita, Kansas.

You and I know that being a Theta adds a dimension of adventure to life, as well as a marvelous treasure trove of friends waiting to be discovered from coast to coast.

P.S. Hope there is a typewriter at Wickenberg, Arizona where we stay tonight or you may get an inky letter!

MARILYN McBRIDE FARLEY

◆ We are happy to report: There was a typewriter at Wickenberg. The Lubbock chapter letter is not inky. Just thought you'd like to know.—EDITOR.

THE COVER: Quite literally jumping for joy, cheerleader Carole Anne Ogilvie, Beta Zeta, Oklahoma State, appears on our cover representing all the college activities which go with fall and the opening of school. Not the least of these is football frenzy. Selected to appear on the cover of Oklahoma State's annual football brochure and program, Carole, like most Theta campus leaders, is far more than a bit of froth and a graceful girl. She is a serious student in home ec with a 3.5 average (out of a possible 4.0) in her major. She still finds time to win awards in specialty acts for Varsity Review, is a member of Angel Flight. With her Theta classmates in her own chapter, and in the other 88 chapters over the continent, she is part of a legion of talented collegians, leaders of tomorrow.

Quotation for Autumn

"In a new community, always some Theta is at hand to make life, with its new associations happier. This is part of our creed."—GRACE A. JOHNSON, Lambda, Vermont. (See page 6).

YOUR EDITOR HAS A NOTION you might have enjoyed being with her today. No, we don't mean to sit here and help type; who likes to do that? (Not even ye ed., on her lazy days!) But earlier today we were at the Indiana State Fair for Band Day. Ninety-seven high school marching bands performed in three minute shifts—which made a continuous column of bands parading before the huge grandstand all morning and well into the afternoon.

It was a colorful (and at times noisy!) sight. Band members, who have been practicing marching, making formations, and tootling for weeks, were all done up in freshly pressed uniforms, newly washed spats (we had to wash spats for our family's band member at eleven o'clock the other night), with brightly shined instruments in hand. There were pompon girls by the dozens, twirlers, and one band had gas-filled balloons in each hot hand, released at the most strategic moment for the best possible effect. There was a band dressed in Scotch kilts (the Highlanders), another with Indian maidens in the vanguard (the Indians), and so on ad infinitum.

The music was good, but not stirring—that is no school songs were played. The selections varied from Gershwin to a political medley, from the "Banks of the Wabash" to assorted marches. But what interested us was how the huge audience was stirred upon the appearance of the hometown band. Applause welled and fell in little pockets of hometown rooters as the favored band gave its three minute performance. And just in front of us were stand-by band members from Ben Davis High School, home of the famed Indianapolis band that journeyed to the Rose Bowl this past January 1st. When the Ben Davis band made its appearance the little group of schoolgirl rooters dissolved in tears, in between shrieks of joy and arm waving encouragement.

Yes, these youngsters were really stirred—with love for their high school, for the school colors carried out in band uniform colors, for their band which was representing them.

It made us pensive, as we so often are, when we contemplate life and its wonderful component parts. We were "seeing" school spirit today; we were "hearing" it in the applause; we were even feeling it ourselves somewhat. Yet, what actually is school spirit? Try to put it in a bottle—you can't catch it. Try to put it on paper—it becomes cold and lifeless. The only way to get to know it, is to feel it—in the heart.

This seems to us somewhat the way it is with fraternity. Feeling for fraternity is something that cannot be explained; it, too, must be felt. Perhaps this is why the critics make such a bad stab at understanding the fraternity system; the "feeling" is forever lost to them.

The feeling is not engendered necessarily by long association—though seventy and seventy-five year Thetas writing in this magazine attest to its lasting quality. But the veriest new member of Theta is caught up in it. And as with those Ben Davis youngsters today, such feelings stem from "the greatest of these"—which is love.

And now to coming deadlines:

Active chapter editors: November 1. Due: 100-word shortie letter. Subject to be assigned.

All editors and others: December 15. Due: General items about Theta for Spring Issue, 1964.

Send copy to Mrs. Herbert L. Garrard, 10 Heather Lane, Route 3, Noblesville, Indiana.

Flanked by handsome Canadian mounties, why wouldn't convention chairmen Ginger Boynton (l.) and Harriet Damisch like it at Banff?

IT'S BANFF In '64

The call goes out to all Thetas—"Come to Banff the Beautiful for Grand Convention, June 14-19, 1964." Superlatives abound in any description of Banff. Said Tom Wilson, first white man to view Lake Louise, "It was painted by the Master, first for the Indians and now for all the world to look upon." Majestic mountains, jewel-hued lakes, cascading streams, gossamer waterfalls weave a binding spell.

The Banff Springs Hotel is a towering castle of Mount Rundle stone, standing regally where the Bow meets the Spray, in sight and sound of famed Bow Falls. With old-world atmosphere it enchants, all the while giving the ultimate in modern comfort and luxury. Activities here are legion: the scenic and challenging golf course, indoor and outdoor pools for swimmers and "sunners," shuffleboard, tennis, nightly musicales, movies, or dancing.

Treasures, imported or local, are found in the Gift Shop. In the hotel also are sold exclusive British woolens and duty-free imports from Hong Kong, Switzerland, and elsewhere—available only to American visitors!

Fascinating, too, to the shopper are the specialty shops downtown. Don't miss the Irish linens, the local pottery and metal crafts, or the paintings by famous Canadians.

See the Government Museum with minerals, flora and fauna of the Park, the Luxton collection of ancient Indian lore, and, new this year, the Canadian Wax Gallery. You may visit the Banff school of Fine Arts, swim in the hot springs of Sulphur Mountain, canoe on the Bow River, ride the gondola or chair lifts or tour in glass-topped buses to the myriad marvels of mountain grandeur.

For the intrepid, there are the thrills of mountain climbing, trail rides to inaccessible glories, superb fishing, and even summer skiing on the glaciers!

Do not hurry away. Bring your families and plan your own post-convention vacations. These include the circle tour of Jasper, Edmonton and Calgary (the Calgary Stampede in early July is a must), or travel the Trans-Canada Highway via Rogers Pass to Vancouver and Victoria.

Come then to the Banff Springs in June of 1964. From the skirl o' the pipes and the "wig-wig-wagging of the kilt" on the parapet in the morning to the traditional flag-lowering ceremony at night, each day will bring delights.

Convention must surely be an inspiration, set in the grandeur of the mystic mountains, awe-inspiring monuments to everlasting peace.—

MARGARET HOWSON CRAIG, Beta Chi, Alberta.

WHAT WILL 1963-1964 MEAN TO FRATERNITIES?

The school year 1963-1964 has started. What is it going to mean for fraternities?

As grand president of Kappa Alpha Theta I am extremely optimistic. I believe that this is the year in which we are going to disprove the adverse publicity which fraternities have received in recent years. Here are a few facts that the sensational articles have overlooked, but which you should know.

1. The unpublicized growth of the fraternity system is phenomenal.

In 1956 there were 1,816 college chapters of women's fraternities affiliated with National Panhellenic Conference. In 1962 there were 2,054 chapters, an increase of almost 40 annually and an average of one per week throughout each of the school years. . . . In 1956 there were 3,316 men's chapters. In 1962, 3,660, an average gain of 60 per year.

By the end of December 1962 there were over 3,000,000 fraternity members.

2. New campuses have opened constantly to fraternities, 88 of them since 1955. During this time only three have been closed to women's groups.

Since January 1963 Theta alone has had inquiries from 23 campuses where we have no chapters.

3. There has been much greater emphasis on scholarship and standards in recent years.

"Hell Week" has become "Help Week." Hazing is outmoded. Pledge training, ideals are in.

4. Fraternities are facing up to the challenge. They are answering unfair criticism with facts. Untrue and biased comments on fraternity happenings harm the young people involved, but Backbone of fraternity: the college members. Shown l. San Jose seniors: Pam Carleton, Nancy Free, Kathy Couchois.

"I am extremely optimistic. I believe that this is the year when fraternities are going to disprove the adverse publicity they have received."

also harm the public because they give a distorted picture which is not true.

Fraternities are answering fair criticisms with constructive programs.

No group of human beings is perfect. It is ridiculous to expect this in organizations of young people when adults have never been able to attain perfection. Chapters are sincerely trying and are being urged and strengthened by adult guidance and supervision.

◊ Dean W. Malott, president of Cornell University: "Despite criticism of the system in some other universities and colleges, fraternities at Cornell are not on the way out by any standard I can see. Fraternities have long been a traditional way of life at Cornell."

◊ Robert Shaffer, dean of students at Indiana University: "We profit from a strong fraternity-sorority tradition. In recent years the fraternities have bettered the all-men's average and the sororities have always been very high in scholarship. Our University would lose a great deal if we had to give up our fraternity system."

◊ Dean Earl Clifford of Syracuse University: "In a very significant way a principal dimension of fraternity experience that has evolved is not modern at all but is a return to the literary, scholastic origin of fraternities."

◊ Dean Emily Taylor of the University of Kansas: "Sororities add to the social life of the campus, uphold high standards in social usage, and build loyal alumnae for the University as well as the sororities. They have a genuine concern for individual members and assist in all kinds of ways to help develop potential."

◊ Dean Donald K. Anderson of the University of Kansas: "Fraternities have made more changes than the public realizes. Hazing is pretty much a thing of the past and there is much more wholesome emphasis on scholarship."

6. The press has emphasized many mistakes made by fraternities but has disregarded their fine points and worthwhile accomplishments.

Are you doing the same?

Hazel Baird Lease
Grand President

Fraternities are not worse than they once were. They are better and that, according to Dr. Russell Kirk, "is more than you can say of the world as a whole."

The fraternity has the best possible framework for meeting the modern challenge of crowded colleges and high scholastic requirements, while still feeling the individual's need of friendship and understanding. This need has never been greater. In this age, where it has been said that the student is "lost in a sea of size," the fraternity has not lost sight of the individual. Do not be misled by sensational journalism or articles quoted out of context. If you know the facts about the fraternity system you will have faith in it.

We can survive and every statistic we study points to the fact that we are going to. We are growing in strength and meeting a real need. Our 89 Theta chapters are our own best proof in this. Inform yourselves—then prove your faith by what you say and do.

◊ Look for three more articles this year on this subject:

1. Are fraternities paying their way on the college campus?

2. Are fraternities upholding high standards and promoting scholarship?

3. Are fraternities self-centered?

◆ If you are as old as you feel, then Grace Agnes Johnson, a 71-year initiate of Theta's Lambda chapter at Vermont, must feel very well indeed. With her older sister, Leirion, also a Vermont Theta, she attended the District IV convention last March. Driving her car, she practically commutes between her home in Belmont, Mass., and Springfield, where Leirion lives.

If you are as old as you think, then most of us should certainly try to think as Grace does. Her thinking knows no age limits—it is almost completely for other people.

Thus, it was not only for Grace's long life in Theta that Thetas in the Boston area decided to honor her at their 1963 spring picnic. Recalling her long years as a Latin teacher at Belmont High School (1907-1940) a scholarship was deemed most suitable. And what started as a modest attempt to pay tribute to Grace has snowballed into a sizable open end scholarship fund, presented to the Theta Foundation.

Her family saw a life of generosity for Grace when she was small, reports her Theta sister Clara. She presented her entire savings of twenty-five cents to a needy organ grinder!

Rounding out the circle, today at 90 (her birthday was July 25) Grace is reading to a young person who is blind and also is a chaplain's visitor one afternoon a week at the Springfield, Mass. hospital, with "countless good deeds in between." Her teaching career was remarkable for her keen interest in her pupils and their families.

Grace's life has been closely tied up with Theta. Her stepmother, Ellen Miller Johnson, pinned her own pin on Grace at initiation. Her aunts, Ethel Sherman and Harriet Sherman Hopkins helped organize the local, Alpha Rho, which became Lambda chapter. A niece, Deborah Johnson Alt, is a Lambda Theta.

Following a fire when Grace and her family were "burned out," Thetas at Vermont "loaned" them the then uninhabited Theta house as home (1893) and helped in other ways. Later, when Grace was preparing for teaching at the University of California at Berkeley (1896-) she lived in the Theta house, was treasurer of Omega chapter. She found Theta friends both during school and in their homes on weekends and during vacations, and in all of her California associations.

"So it has been always, whatever the crisis, whatever the vocation or vacation," says Grace. "ALWAYS the friendship of Thetas."

And, say those who love Grace Johnson most, "Theta's moral code is Grace's personal code. ALWAYS Grace has epitomized Theta friendship."

Always, Friendship of Thetas

1963 GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation announces the awarding of six, $500 graduate scholarships. These six members of Kappa Alpha Theta, enrolled in six different graduate colleges, were chosen with great difficulty from many excellent applications by the Loan and Fellowship Committee and the board of directors of the Foundation.

Each winner not only is a top honor student, but is an outstanding member of her Theta chapter and a valued contributing member of her campus student body. All six of these most attractive young women have been partially self-supporting during their college careers. Each has a definite goal which requires graduate study.

Kappa Alpha Theta proudly salutes the scholarship winners of 1963:

Lynnette Beall, Eta, Michigan, is studying for her doctor's degree in clinical psychology at the University of Michigan. Following her graduation from the University of Michigan in 1959, Lynnette received a full tuition scholarship for the Harvard-Radcliffe Program of Business Administration. This she completed "with distinction" in 1960. Lynnette was chapter president and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board and is recognized as a "top flight scholar."

Maribeth Halloran, Upsilon, Minnesota, entered the University of Minnesota law school this fall. Maribeth, a member of Phi Beta Kappa, has been a "faithful worker" for her chapter. She is described as "a young woman of superior character, charming personality, and a fine intelligence."

Panze Butler Kimmel (Mrs. R. Turner Kimmel), Alpha Theta, Texas, a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board, received her master of music degree in 1949. Following the death of her architect husband in 1961, Panze, besides caring for her two young children, has been an assistant teacher at Texas Technological College, while studying for her doctor's degree in musical education.

Her contributions to Kappa Alpha Theta are far too numerous to mention. She has never ceased to work for her fraternity and this year was manager of District XII's convention. Many will remember Panze as song leader at the Grand Convention at Galen Hall, 1958. The dean of women at Texas Tech writes, "In all my experience I have not associated with a finer member of Kappa Alpha Theta." These words have been echoed and re-echoed by Thetas.

Colleen Krebs, Upsilon, Minnesota, graduated magna cum laude from the University of Minnesota, entered the School of Master of Arts in Teaching English at Harvard University this fall. Colleen is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board, and has been an "earnest, faithful, and enthusiastic worker" for her chapter. Her "remarkable intelligence and wide range of interest" have placed her on the dean's list of outstanding students for the last seven semesters.

Nancy Newman, Gamma deuteron, Ohio Wesleyan, has entered Boston University School of Religious Education to study for a master's degree in religion, which will prepare her to be a director of religious education. Nancy spent one semester at the University of Vienna.

A member of Mortar Board and Phi Beta Kappa, she has an overall accumulative grade point of 3.85 out of a possible 4.00. Nancy is "a gifted leader with perseverance, sincerity of purpose, a winning personality, and a deep interest in her fellow students."

Martha Whitcombe, Gamma Pi, Iowa State, is attending Baylor Medical School in order to become a medical technician. As president of Panhellenic, Martha made a great contribution to the fraternity system at Ames. She received the alumnæ award given to the senior in the Theta house who had contributed most to the chapter. A member of Phi Kappa Phi and Mortar Board, Martha excelled not only in scholarship but in social and extracurricular activities. She has, "in addition to a superior intellectual ability, patience, accuracy, understanding, and tolerance."

AN INTERVIEW

by Frances Strickland

Wichita Alumnae Chapter

◆ Taiko Nagasawa, one of seven Japanese students studying at the Institute of Logopedics in Wichita, Kansas, is of special interest to Thetas because her training is made possible by Theta's 1962 Fellowship grant. She met me one morning recently in the reception room of the Administration Building of the Institute. As she appeared in the doorway there was no question of her identity—small, dark eyes and hair and true oriental features. She was dressed in a gray wool suit, white blouse, flats, and hose—all very American. I might have guessed she was eighteen but she told me later that she is twenty-seven.

One feels immediately upon meeting Taiko that she is alert and well poised. She smiles and laughs, especially when she gropes for an English word or an American expression. Her use of the language is somewhat colored by the fact that she began her study of English in Japanese schools under British teachers and later studied under American teachers.

Taiko had the advantage of good schooling in Japan. She graduated from the University of Meiji Gakuin in Tokyo with a major in English literature and a minor in education, making an exceptional record despite the fact that all of her work was taken in night classes. Her father died and she had to help in the family store and also assist with the care of a younger brother and sister.

Gordon Van Wyk, professor of history at the University, wrote that "she acquired a reputation among the faculty for her exceptionally serious, conscientious approach to her work."

After her graduation she spent two years as a guide for tourists. These positions are well paid, according to Japanese standards, and afford a good opportunity for the guide to converse in foreign languages.

Nothing was being done in Japan for the speech handicapped and Taiko recognized this need. It was through a Wichita woman, Mrs. R. H. Garvey, a member of one of her tour parties, that Taiko learned of the Institute of Logopedics, which is affiliated with the University of Wichita. Later, with the help of Mrs.

Garvey, it was possible for her to come to the United States. She arrived in San Francisco on August 19, 1962, where she was met by Japanese friends.

Taiko finds American life not too different from life in Japan. She says that the people, both at the Institute and in Wichita, have been friendly and helpful. Now, when an acquaintance calls "Hi!" to her, she no longer looks "high" up toward the sky, but knows it is just a friendly greeting.

I asked her if she had been homesick and she smiled and replied, "Oh, no. I guess I have been too busy."

It has truly been a busy year for Taiko. She has spent nine hours a week in the clinic observing the teaching of the art of speech to children and adults with communication problems, eight hours a week in classes at the University, and twenty hours a week on research on her thesis. The difficulty of reading and speaking in a foreign language made an added burden. In spite of this, she maintained a B average. The fact that she is small and speaks with an accent causes the children at the Institute to assume that she is one of them and to accept her readily as a friend and teacher.

Next year she will continue her work both at the Institute and the University, complete her master's thesis and research for the M.A. degree in Logopedics. She will leave for Tokyo in August 1964.

Taiko shares an apartment with a logopedics student from Nebraska. They keep house, cook and shop together, and develop an appreciation and understanding for the culture of their two countries. Taiko had the happy experience this winter of playing the part of a Japanese girl in "A Majority of One" when it was produced by the Wichita Community Theatre.

Taiko has lived in a different world from the one her mother knew as a girl. The greatest change has come to Japan since the Second World War. Japan is becoming a great industrial country. Girls as well as boys are receiving professional education. Young people have more freedom. They wear western dress and choose their own friends. Parents still assume some responsibility for finding suitable mates for their children. However, when the young people meet and are not attracted to one another, the plans usually go no further.

Taiko observes a speech lesson. She must have many hours of observation before she will teach—under supervision.

Pioneering in a new field will be a real challenge for Taiko. Using her skills in a speech clinic to help her countrymen in Tokyo will be her first goal. There are now schools for the deaf which are supported by the government. So, she must prove to the government that the speech handicapped as well as the deaf can be trained to be happy, ardent and useful citizens.

Taiko has the interest and enthusiasm, I believe, to make this opening wedge and to attract other professional people to this important work.

No greater tribute could be paid to those we love than by providing hope for a child at the Institute of Logopedics in their memory. Checks for such a memorial should be made to the Theta Foundation, sent to Central Office.

VANDERBILT

"continuous high quality"

What are the characteristics of an outstanding college chapter? At the 1962 Grand Convention a new award, the Founders' Award, was given to a chapter for "continuous high quality." Alpha Eta at Vanderbilt University was the first chapter to receive the beautiful traveling trophy, a candelabra given by District XII. Here Alpha Eta reports on a usual year for the chapter.—VIRGINIA S. EDWARDS.

◆ We in Alpha Eta work through the year with three main goals in mind: unity and closeness within the sorority; active participation in and responsibility toward the school's activities; and a close, cooperative relationship with our alumnae.

There are many facets in our program which bring about unity. One is the pledge program. At the beginning of pledge training, each pledge is given a black and gold pillow shaped like a kite with two long felt tails to which she attaches forty-nine little tags bearing each member's name. She gets each tag only after she has had a "coke date," or a thirty minute talk with that member whose tag bears her name.

We consistently remain at the top in scholarship. For incentive, a trophy is awarded each year to the mother-daughter "team" with the highest scholastic average. A regulated study hall is held each night in the house, compulsory for those with deficiencies. A scholarship banquet each semester and special programs in chapter meetings remind us of our scholastic goals.

Panhellenic sports likewise provide us an opportunity to work together. In spring 1963 we were awarded the Panhellenic sports trophy.

Though we do not live in our house, the whole chapter always eats there on Saturday noon at a luncheon prepared by a special committee of members. One night a month one class cooks the meal and puts on a skit for the rest. We call this Kite Night.

Our philanthropy is a twelve-year-old Greek girl in the Foster Parents' Plan. At Christmas we give a party for a local orphanage.

In the realm of campus activities this past year we were proud of five members on the Honor Council, thirteen on the Advisory Board, and two in Mortar Board. Patty Lewis was president of the Residence Halls' Council; Janice Vaughn was vice-president of both the Advisory Council and the WSGA. We had two in the athletic honorary, two cheerleaders, and at least a half-dozen queens.

A Student-Faculty lunch to which we invited favorite professors was a highlight of last year. At "Fireside Chats" held during the year, one professor led discussion on current topics.

Establishing the Sharon Ann Murphy award (in memory of a member killed in a horseback fall in 1962) to be given annually by Panhellenic to the outstanding sophomore girl, we were gratified when Theta Lindsay Leitch was the first to receive it.

Last, we all are conscious of and appreciative of the great debt we owe to our alumnae, particularly this year after their tremendous support and guidance in the completion of our new house. We honored them at Founders' Day 1963 in the house. Monthly meetings of our executive officers with the Advisory Board keep the alumnae well in contact with the chapter.

FOUNDERS' AWARD MEANS SUCCESSFUL RUSH. Kite fly by pledges Amye Grady, Nan Norman, Charlotte McCauley, Julie Barnes, Dale Brakebill. FOUNDERS' AWARD MEANS CHAPTER UNITY. Jane Gillespie and fiancé prepare dinner for Kite Night. FOUNDERS' AWARD MEANS CAMPUS ACTIVITIES. The Theta team waits turn at basketball tourney.

ROUNDABOUT WITH THETA

Love Is Everywhere—Houston, Texas, where there is no college chapter of Theta, has a Mothers' Club for Theta mothers in the area, regardless of chapters. With a program of 3-M's: Meetings four times a year; Money, as much as $500 given to various chapters in a year; Mission, often helping the Houston Alumnae Chapter with the Antique Show, the club typifies Theta ML (mother love). Above, current and incoming presidents, Mrs. James A. Beeley (l.), Mrs. J. Harvey Settles (r.) with Grand Council member-at-large, Opal McCelvey, who spoke on campus trends at club's annual meeting.

We Welcome these new alumnae clubs—

BLYTHEVILLE, ARKANSAS—president, Mrs. T. E. Geeslin, Jr.

CHICKASHA, OKLAHOMA—president, Mrs. Robert Green

DENTON, TEXAS—president, Mrs. J. Holford Russell

HUNTSVILLE, ALABAMA—president, Mrs. John E. Hatch

PAMPA, TEXAS—president, Mrs. Eben D. Warner, Jr.

RICHARDSON, TEXAS—president, Mrs. Dave Bergstrom

TEMPLE, TEXAS—president, Mrs. Jeff Coker

And a Marriage—

Alexandria, Va. and Arlington-Fairfax clubs are now happily united in the Northern Virginia Alumnae Club. We Welcome—

NORTHERN VIRGINIA—president, Mrs. Henry T. Gannon, Falls Church

Alpha Upsilon Platform—Says Grand President Hazel Lease, "This is just another example of how wonderful the college fraternity is!" Say the 1963-1964 Theta officers at Washburn:

I. To ever strengthen our chain as a whole by strengthening each link, we resolve:

- a) To work toward closer relationships with one another for a firmer sisterhood.
- b) To serve as examples for our pledges and for our active sisters.
- c) To help one another grow as individuals and as Thetas; to help each sister truly to become a part of our chapter and of Theta.
- d) To always set the example of a positive attitude with our sisters and others.

II. To keep our kite of aspiration always high, we resolve:

- a) To establish the desire to become better students and thus achieve higher scholarship.
- b) To maintain highest standards of social and moral conduct at all times.
- c) To help strengthen the relationship between the lay public and the fraternity.
- d) To stress and improve our social graces and welcome all guests into our house.

III. Towards living by our moral code of love, we resolve:

- a) To strengthen relationships between our chapter, housemother, alumnae.
- b) To respect others' rights and privileges.
- c) To teach that what we do reflects as much on Theta as Theta's name reflects on us.
- d) To apply the meaning of our moral code to all phases of our lives.

IV. To renew our promises to be earnest, faithful, and enthusiastic workers for Theta's advancement and welfare, we resolve:

- a) To promote active participation in campus life so as to broaden our horizons.
- b) To gain a firm foundation through college on which we may base our adult lives.
- c) To provide the strength of leadership for our chapter.
- d) To be prompt in all Theta business, thus to learn to be prompt in all things we do.
- e) To strive for betterment; being self-critical in order to advance in the future.

nominations

Evelyn Widman Tunnicliffe, who served so capably as chairman of the Nominating Committee for the 1962 Grand Convention, will again serve as chairman for 1964. Evelyn, whose chapter is Eta, Michigan, is also president of the board of trustees for the Theta Foundation, and has been both vice-president and member-at-large on Grand Council.

Recommendations for Grand Council officers may be made any time during the year, up to and during Convention. Any Theta may make such a recommendation. Send to:

Mrs. Max B. Tunnicliffe
41 Seneca Road
Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Evelyn Tunnicliffe, chairman
Nominating Committee

50 Years and All's Well.—Two college chapters reach the 50 year mark in 1963. We salute Washington State and Cincinnati which became members of Theta in 1913.

When Washington State's local Pi Delta Phi joined Theta it marked the first time Theta had made a charter grant at a so-called "agricultural college." Washington State's installation was also the first ever held in a chapter house—the house used for four years by Pi Delta Phi.

The organization known as V. C. P. was the nucleus for Theta at Cincinnati. This installation took place on December 13, 1913 in the presence of Hannah Fitch Shaw, one of Theta's four founders.

Staff Appointments—Theta has two traveling secretaries this year: Jo Ann Kriegbaum, Gamma, Butler, who was also a traveling secretary last year, and Judy Rutledge, Gamma Phi, Texas Tech.

Counselors are two, also. Jacqueline Hooker, Gamma Zeta, Connecticut, is spending her second year at Louisiana State. Jill Burton, Delta Delta, Whitman, is at Pacific.

There is also a new Theta at Central Office. Melinda Cumming Waltz, Gamma Upsilon, Miami, is secretary to the College Committee. The traveling secretaries and Melinda attended the recent Theta Officers' Conference.

We hope to have pictures of some of these terrific workers for Theta—come another issue. Watch for them!

She Remembered Theta—Marion Louise Miller, initiated at Upsilon, Minnesota, in 1909, was a loyal and devoted member of Kappa Alpha Theta. When she died in October 1962 she bequeathed $500 to the fraternity.

The Thetas whose names and years of initiation are given here are a few of the many now in our lost list because they failed to keep us informed of their marriages and changes of address. If you know the whereabouts of any of these, please notify Central Office, using the blank on page 15. (And, if you are about to move, use the blank on page 64 to report your own address change!)

DISTRICT CONVENTIONS

Theta Lips Are Smiling

◆ Many fifty-year-Thetas attend District Conventions, receive fifty-year-awards to congratulatory applause from other Thetas. Everyone smiled about those honored at current conventions:

DISTRICT I—Esther Bassett Cavanagh, Mary Van-Arsdel Pitkin, DePauw; Mary Rieman Maurer, Indiana; Hilda Kinder Arnold, Bonnie Applegate Donnell, Helen Rogers Hand, Mary Baker Stitt, Butler.

DISTRICT IV—Frances Lakin Armstead, Martha Elizabeth Crocker, Michigan; Anna Ruth Kenney Hart, Mildred Kenney Mahoney, Syracuse, sisters.

◆ District IV had another distinction. Another pair of sisters were honored as seventy-year-Thetas! They are Grace A. Johnson (see also page 6) and Leirion Johnson Appleton, both from Vermont.

◆ Thinking to impress her audience at District VII, ADP Helen Hoak left her reading glasses at home, turned up presenting alumnae awards at the banquet with a lorgnette in her hand. Unaccustomed as she was at using a lorgnette, both she and her audience had a hilarious time while she adjusted to this new piece of equipment!

◆ Theta lips should smile about Carol Green Wilson. The District IX Convention was her 19th!

◆ Flivver Little, treasurer of the Theta Foundation, smiled at District XI's convention when $50 was voted to the Foundation and over $40 was donated in individual contributions.

◆ Flivver, also serving as an emergency CDP in District XI, was honored both by convention and by her own chapter at Florida State in a special ceremony in recognition of her service. She is a Florida State charter member and only alumna to serve on Grand Council.

◆ Grand President Hazel Lease was also honored, at District XV's Convention, both by her chapter at Montana and by the Butte-Anaconda Alumnae Club. Money donated by Montana alumnae and presented to Hazel at the 1962 Grand Convention was returned by her for philanthropic use. At District XV's Convention, Butte-Anaconda presented a plaque engraved with Hazel's name to be placed in a children's room at the Montana State University Speech and Hearing Clinic. This room is being furnished by the Missoula Theta Alumnae Chapter and Hazel's fund was given to this cause.

◆ You're as old (young?) as you feel??? Commented a District XVII Convention goer, still able to smile, "I didn't believe you when you said college members thought anyone who was even a few years out of college to be old. I only graduated ten years ago and one of the girls wondered if I might have been in college at the same time her mother was!"

The HONORARIES

Minneapolis Tribune

MOST COLLEGE FRATERNITY CHAPTERS—men or women—feel amply honored if one or two of their members become Phi Beta Kappas their junior or senior years. To have as many as four, as does the Minnesota chapter of Theta, whose “smart girls” are shown in the picture above, is something to shout about. (Incidentally, Michigan Thetas are shouting also, since five of the Thetas there became Phi Beta Kappas this spring.)

Commented the Minneapolis Tribune about the Minnesota Thetas, “Despite talk of male superiority in the mental fields, four Kappa Alpha Thetas . . . elected to Phi Beta Kappa honorary academic fraternity . . . set something of a record for the campus as well as the chapter.”

Left to right, the girls are Colleen Krebs, Maribeth Halloran, Susan Stensrud, Judith Perry. Colleen will go on to the Harvard graduate school of education; Maribeth plans to go into law; Susan is now attending the College of Europe in Bruges, Belgium. Judith is interested in Christian education.

In the listing of college honoraries which follows, the names of well over 500 Thetas appear, girls of proven ability in scholarship, leadership, and service.

Honorary Statistics

♦ Schools which do not have a chapter of Mortar Board, but which sponsor a local organization which is a "Mortar Board equivalent," are Colorado College, Cap and Gown; Duke, Phi Kappa Delta; Emory, Women's Honorary Organization; Fresno State, Tokalon; Nevada, Cap and Scroll; San Jose, Black Mask; Syracuse, Eta Pi Upsilon; Washburn, Nonoso.

♦ No Theta chapter is able to point to as many Phi Beta Kappa members as is the University of Michigan chapter with five. But Minnesota, with four (shown in the picture which opens the honorary section) is a close second. . . . Iowa State and Texas Tech are tied with the most members elected to Phi Kappa Phi—six each. . . . Six is the magic number for Mortar Board election, also. South Dakota points with pride to this many in Mortar Board from their chapter.

We salute these girls and their schools.

♦ Though awards in our Canadian chapters are different, they are also similar! Louise Calder, Beta Chi, Alberta, was awarded a Gold "A" ring for her campus contributions and Wendy Dahlgren received the Mamie Shaw Simpson award, the top award for women's athletics at Alberta.

For the third time in the past five years, Pennsylvania State is one of the leading chapters on the honorary roster. This year they head the list with 25 girls pledged to 11 organizations. Kansas State came in a close second, with 22 members in 12 societies. Congratulations to these two chapters and to the 68 others reporting who had girls eligible for membership in a total of 52 nationally recognized honoraries.—MARGARET STRADLING MOORE.

Fellowships and Special Awards

A Woodrow Wilson Fellowship has been awarded to each of the following Thetas:

Gail Eberhardt, Kansas, is attending Harvard graduate school.

Susan Ford, Texas, is attending Columbia University and studying classical languages.

Carole Jensen, Kansas State. Will possibly study under Woodrow Wilson Fellowship later. For 1963-1964 is attending school in Hamburg, under a West German Republic Fellowship.

Ellen Nore, Nebraska, is attending Stanford.

A Fulbright Scholarship has been awarded to Margaret Leonard, Maryland, who is using it to study modern German literature at Kiel University in Germany.

Sharon McIntosh of Iowa State received the Wall Street Journal award for the most outstanding senior in the Industrial Administration Department.

Susan Baker, Texas, was chosen a member of the student chapter of the American Institute of Interior Decorators.

Better late than never! Oklahoma State reports that their five Mortar Board members for last year topped the campus. Four are shown with this year's member, Carol Jo Brien.

A feather in the cap of South Dakota are these eleven pretty Thetas (going up or coming down; take your choice!) shown on the chapter house stairs. They are new members of Guidon, women's military honorary. Never before have so many from one house been chosen. . . . And these aren't all of "the mostests"; only these chapters sent pictures!
